Advanis is a Market and Policy Research company that has been doing surveys since 1997 and we are looking for telephone interviewers. We offer fully paid training and a set wage.

You need:

- a good command of the English language, written and oral skills
- excellent customer service skills
- a typing speed of 30 wpm
- a quiet, private workspace in your home
- a personal computer with high speed Internet service
- a landline or cellular phone number – if you wish to leave your phone landline available for people to call in on, you will need to have a second (separate) phone line
- a corded headset with a noise cancelling microphone is preferred however, earbuds with built-in microphone are also accepted. No cordless phones or speaker phones.

Bilingualism (French, Spanish, Punjabi, Cantonese or other) is an asset, but not essential.

As a remote agent, you would receive additional benefits such as:

- the ability to claim a portion of household expenses such as Internet, power, rent, or mortgage
- no transportation cost to come to work and no parking costs
- great web community to provide you with the support you need to do a great job
- flexible scheduling that works with your home life

Application Procedure

Applications will only be accepted through our online application form available on our website.

We thank all applicants for their interest; however, only candidates under consideration will be contacted.
